

Self-assessment form

This self-assessment form should be completed by the complaints officer and it must be reviewed and approved by the landlord's governing body at least annually.

Once approved, landlords must publish the self-assessment as part of the annual complaints performance and service improvement report on their website. The governing body's response to the report must be published alongside this.

Landlords are required to complete the self-assessment in full and support all statements with evidence, with additional commentary as necessary.

We recognise that there may be a small number of circumstances where landlords are unable to meet the requirements, for example, if they do not have a website. In these circumstances, we expect landlords to deliver the intentions of the Code in an alternative way, for example by publishing information in a public area so that it is easily accessible.

CHARITY OF MARJORIE HURST

Section 1: Definition of a complaint

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
1.2	A complaint must be defined as: ‘an expression of dissatisfaction, however made, about the standard of service, actions or lack of action by the landlord, its own staff, or those acting on its behalf, affecting a resident or group of residents.’	Yes	Complaints Policy section 1.2
1.3	A resident does not have to use the word ‘complaint’ for it to be treated as such. Whenever a resident expresses dissatisfaction landlords must give them the choice to make complaint. A complaint that is submitted via a third party or representative must be handled in line with the landlord’s complaints policy.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 1.3
1.4	Landlords must recognise the difference between a service request and a complaint. This must be set out in their complaints policy. A service request is a request from a resident to	Yes	Complaints Policy sections 1.5 and 1.6	A spreadsheet of service requests is kept by the Clerk to the Trustees. It logs all service requests, the dates they are made, the landlord requiring action to be taken to put something right. Service requests are not complaints, but must be recorded, monitored and reviewed regularly.			actions, responsibilities and dates of completion.

1.5	A complaint must be raised when the resident expresses dissatisfaction with the response to their service request, even if the handling of the service request remains ongoing. Landlords must not stop their efforts to address the service request if the resident complains.	Yes	Complaints policy section 1.7
1.6	An expression of dissatisfaction with services made through a survey is not defined as a complaint, though wherever possible, the person completing the survey should be made aware of how they can pursue a complaint if they wish to. Where landlords ask for wider feedback about their services, they also must provide details of how residents can complain.	Yes	Complaints policy section 1.8	Section 7 of our Residents' Handbook explains how to make a complaint as well as what to do if there is a service request.

Section 2: Exclusions

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
2.1	Landlords must accept a complaint unless there is a valid reason not to do so. If landlords decide not to accept a complaint they must be able to evidence their reasoning. Each complaint must be considered on its own merits	Yes	Complaints Policy section 2.1
2.2	A complaints policy must set out the circumstances in which a matter will not be considered as a complaint or escalated, and these circumstances must be fair and reasonable to residents. Acceptable exclusions include: • The issue giving rise to the complaint occurred over twelve months ago. • Legal proceedings have started. This is defined as details of the claim, such as the Claim Form and Particulars of Claim, having been filed at court. • Matters that have previously been considered under the complaints policy.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 2.2

2.3	Landlords must accept complaints referred to them within 12 months of the issue occurring or the resident becoming aware of the issue, unless they are excluded on other grounds. Landlords must consider whether to apply discretion to accept complaints made outside this time limit where there are good reasons to do so.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 2.3
2.4	If a landlord decides not to accept a complaint, an explanation must be provided to the resident setting out the reasons why the matter is not suitable for the complaints process and the right to take that decision to the Ombudsman. If the Ombudsman does not agree that the exclusion has been fairly applied, the Ombudsman may tell the landlord to take on the complaint.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 2.4
2.5	Landlords must not take a blanket approach to excluding complaints; they must consider the individual circumstances of each complaint.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 2.1	Each complaint will be considered on its own merits.

Section 3: Accessibility and Awareness

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
3.1	Landlords must make it easy for residents to complain by providing different channels through which they can make a complaint. Landlords must consider their duties under the Equality Act 2010 and anticipate the needs and reasonable adjustments of residents who may need to access the complaints process.	Yes	Complaint Policy sections 1.4, 4.1 & 4.2
3.2	Residents must be able to raise their complaints in any way and with any member of staff. All staff must be aware of the complaints process and be able to pass details of the complaint to the appropriate person within the landlord.	Yes	Complaint Policy sections 1.4, 5 and 13.	The complaints process has been agreed and discussed at Trustees' meetings so all five trustees and the Clerk are aware of it. Section 13 of the Complaints Policy sets out the name and contact details of the Complaints Officer, the Appeals Officer and Deputy Appeals Officer and the Residents' Handbook identifies all of the Charity's trustees.
3.3	High volumes of complaints must not be seen as a negative, as they can be indicative of a well-publicised and	Yes	Complaints Policy section 4.3

	accessible complaints process. Low complaint volumes are potentially a sign that residents are unable to complain.
3.4	Landlords must make their complaint policy available in a clear and accessible format for all residents. This will detail the two stage process, what will happen at each stage, and the timeframes for responding. The policy must also be published on the landlord's website.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 4.4	The Complaints Policy is included in the Residents' Handbook which is issued to all the residents in a ringbinder. The policy is also on the Documents page of the Charity's website.
3.5	The policy must explain how the landlord will publicise details of the complaints policy, including information about the Ombudsman and this Code.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 4.4	The Complaints Policy refers to the Complaint Handling Code and has the contact details for the Housing Ombudsman. The Complaints Policy is included in the Residents' Handbook which is issued to all the residents in a ringbinder. The policy is also on the Documents page of the Charity's website.
3.6	Landlords must give residents the opportunity to have a representative deal with their complaint on their behalf, and to be represented or accompanied at any meeting with the landlord.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 4.5

3.7	Landlords must provide residents with information on their right to access the Ombudsman service and how the individual can engage with the Ombudsman about their complaint.	Yes	Complaints Policy sections 7.2, 8.5, 8.7 & Section 14
-----	--	-----	---	--

Section 4: Complaint Handling Staff

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
4.1	Landlords must have a person or team assigned to take responsibility for complaint handling, including liaison with the Ombudsman and ensuring complaints are reported to the governing body (or equivalent). This Code will refer to that person or team as the 'complaints officer'. This role may be in addition to other duties.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 5 & 6	Sarah Baron (the Clerk to the Trustees) is assigned as the Complaints Officer, Valerie Young (a trustee) is assigned as the Appeals Officer and Andrew Lloyd-Green (a trustee) is assigned as a Deputy Appeals Officer in the event that Valerie Young is away or for any reason unable to carry out the duties.
4.2	The complaints officer must have access to staff at all levels to facilitate the prompt resolution of complaints. They must also have the authority and autonomy to act to resolve disputes promptly and fairly.	Yes		Sarah Baron in her role as Clerk to the Trustees has ready access to the five trustees of the Charity and is responsible for the day to day management of the Charity.
4.3	Landlords are expected to prioritise complaint handling and a culture of learning from complaints. All relevant staff must be suitably trained in the importance of complaint handling. It is important that complaints are seen as a	Yes	Complaints policy section 5.4	Sarah Baron, the Complaints Officer, has attended online seminars run by the Housing Ombudsman and disseminated key advice relating to the Complaints core service and must be resourced to handle complaints effectively.			Handling Code to trustees including the MRC and Appeals Officer.

Section 5: The Complaint Handling Process

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
5.1	Landlords must have a single policy in place for dealing with complaints covered by this Code. Residents must not be treated differently if they complain.	Yes	The Charity has one Complaints Policy.	There are no other complaint policies used and adopted by the Charity.
5.2	The early and local resolution of issues between landlords and residents is key to effective complaint handling. It is not appropriate to have extra named stages (such as 'stage 0' or 'informal complaint') as this causes unnecessary confusion.	Yes	Complaints Policy sections 7 & 8	Sections 7 & 8 set out the two stage process.
5.3	A process with more than two stages is not acceptable under any circumstances as this will make the complaint process unduly long and delay access to the Ombudsman.	Yes	Complaints Policy sections 7 & 8	Sections 7 & 8 set out the two stage process.
5.4	Where a landlord's complaint response is handled by a third party (e.g. a contractor or independent adjudicator) at any stage, it must form part of the two stage complaints process set out in this Code. Residents must not be expected to go through two complaints processes.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 7.4	If the Complaints Officer, Sarah Baron, delegates the management and investigation of the complaint to another individual, it will be to a trustee of the Charity who is not the Appeals Officer. This would still be Stage 1 of the complaints process.

5.5	Landlords are responsible for ensuring that any third parties handle complaints in line with the Code.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 7.4	If the Complaints Officer, Sarah Baron, delegates the management and investigation of the complaint to another individual, it will be a trustee of the Charity who is not the Appeals Officer. This would still be Stage 1 of the complaints process.
5.6	When a complaint is logged at Stage 1 or escalated to Stage 2, landlords must set out their understanding of the complaint and the outcomes the resident is seeking. The Code will refer to this as “the complaint definition”. If any aspect of the complaint is unclear, the resident must be asked for clarification.	Yes	Complaints Policy sections 7.1 & 8.3
5.7	When a complaint is acknowledged at either stage, landlords must be clear which aspects of the complaint they are, and are not, responsible for and clarify any areas where this is not clear.	Yes	Complaints Policy sections 7.1 & 8.3
5.8	At each stage of the complaints process, complaint handlers must:	Yes	Complaints Policy section 6

	a. deal with complaints on their merits, act independently, and have an open mind; b. give the resident a fair chance to set out their position; c. take measures to address any actual or perceived conflict of interest; and d. consider all relevant information and evidence carefully.
5.9	Where a response to a complaint will fall outside the timescales set out in this Code, the landlord must agree with the resident suitable intervals for keeping them informed about their complaint.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 7.2 & 8.5
5.10	Landlords must make reasonable adjustments for residents where appropriate under the Equality Act 2010. Landlords must keep a record of any reasonable adjustments agreed, as well as a record of any disabilities a resident has disclosed. Any agreed reasonable adjustments must be kept under active review.	Yes	Complaints Policy sections 4.1 & 4.2	The lead trustee responsible for Equality & Diversity will keep a record of any reasonable adjustments agreed and regularly review the adjustments.
5.11	Landlords must not refuse to escalate a complaint through all stages of the complaints procedure unless it has valid reasons to do so. Landlords must clearly set out these reasons, and they	Yes	Complaints Policy section 2 must comply with the provisions set out in section 2 of this Code.

5.12	A full record must be kept of the complaint, and the outcomes at each stage. This must include the original complaint and the date received, all correspondence with the resident, correspondence with other parties, and any relevant supporting documentation such as reports or surveys.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 11
5.13	Landlords must have processes in place to ensure a complaint can be remedied at any stage of its complaints process. Landlords must ensure appropriate remedies can be provided at any stage of the complaints process without the need for escalation.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 9
5.14	Landlords must have policies and procedures in place for managing unacceptable behaviour from residents and/or their representatives. Landlords must be able to evidence reasons for putting any restrictions in place and must keep restrictions under regular review.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 3	The Charity has an Anti-Social Behaviour policy against which behaviour may be reviewed. If the unreasonable or unacceptable behaviour is from a resident, the Charity will assess the behaviour against the terms of the resident's appointment letter and the Charity's governing document which gives the Charity the power to set aside the resident's appointment.

5.15	Any restrictions placed on contact due to unacceptable behaviour must be proportionate and demonstrate regard for the provisions of the Equality Act 2010.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 3.3	The Charity will have regard to its Equality & Diversity policy if applying any restrictions on contact.

Section 6: Complaints Stages

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
6.1	Landlords must have processes in place to consider which complaints can be responded to as early as possible, and which require further investigation. Landlords must consider factors such as the complexity of the complaint and whether the resident is vulnerable or at risk. Most stage 1 complaints can be resolved promptly, and an explanation, apology or resolution provided to the resident.	Yes	Complaints Policy sections 1.9 and 6	In practice the Clerk to the Trustees who is the Complaints Officer is used to dealing with issues promptly and where possible pre-emptively. If the resident is particularly vulnerable, the Clerk will liaise with family members or a close friend of the resident to help with communication and to solve any issue.
6.2	Complaints must be acknowledged, defined and logged at stage 1 of the complaints procedure within five working days of the complaint being received .	Yes	Complaints Policy section 7.1
6.3	Landlords must issue a full response to stage 1 complaints within 10 working days of the complaint being acknowledged.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 7.2

	of the expected timescale for response. Any extension must be no more than 10 working days without good reason, and the reason(s) must be clearly explained to the resident.
6.5	When an organisation informs a resident about an extension to these timescales, they must be provided with the contact details of the Ombudsman.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 7.2
6.6	A complaint response must be provided to the resident when the answer to the complaint is known, not when the outstanding actions required to address the issue are completed. Outstanding actions must still be tracked and actioned promptly with appropriate updates provided to the resident.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 7.3
6.7	Landlords must address all points raised in the complaint definition and provide clear reasons for any decisions, referencing the relevant policy, law and good practice where appropriate.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 7.8
6.8	Where residents raise additional complaints during the investigation, these must be incorporated into the stage 1 response if they are related and the stage 1 response has not been issued. Where the stage 1 response has been issued, the new issues are unrelated to the issues already being	Yes	Complaints Policy section 7.7

	investigated or it would unreasonably delay the response, the new issues must be logged as a new complaint.
6.9	Landlords must confirm the following in writing to the resident at the completion of stage 1 in clear, plain language: a. the complaint stage; b. the complaint definition; c. the decision on the complaint; d. the reasons for any decisions made; e. the details of any remedy offered to put things right; f. details of any outstanding actions; and g. details of how to escalate the matter to stage 2 if the individual is not satisfied with the response.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 7.8

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
6.10	If all or part of the complaint is not resolved to the resident's satisfaction at stage 1, it must be progressed to stage 2 of the landlord's procedure. Stage 2 is the landlord's final response.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 8.1 and 8.4
6.11	Requests for stage 2 must be acknowledged, defined and logged at stage 2 of the complaints procedure	Yes	Complaints Policy section 8.3

	within five working days of the escalation request being received.
6.12	Residents must not be required to explain their reasons for requesting a stage 2 consideration. Landlords are expected to make reasonable efforts to understand why a resident remains unhappy as part of its stage 2 response.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 8.2
6.13	The person considering the complaint at stage 2 must not be the same person that considered the complaint at stage 1.	Yes	Complaints Policy sections 8.1 and 13.	Sarah Baron is the Complaints officer at Stage 1 Valerie Young is the Appeals Officer at Stage 2. Andrew Lloyd-Green is the Deputy Appeals officer at Stage 2 in the event that Valerie Young is away or unable to carry out the role at that time.
6.14	Landlords must issue a final response to the stage 2 within 20 working days of the complaint being acknowledged.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 8.4
6.15	Landlords must decide whether an extension to this timescale is needed when considering the complexity of the complaint and then inform the resident of the expected timescale for response. Any extension must be no more than 20 working days without good reason, and the reason(s) must be clearly explained to the resident.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 8.5
6.16	When an organisation informs a resident about an extension to these	Yes	Complaints Policy section 8.5

	timescales, they must be provided with the contact details of the Ombudsman.
6.17	A complaint response must be provided to the resident when the answer to the complaint is known, not when the outstanding actions required to address the issue are completed. Outstanding actions must still be tracked and actioned promptly with appropriate updates provided to the resident.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 8.6
6.18	Landlords must address all points raised in the complaint definition and provide clear reasons for any decisions, referencing the relevant policy, law and good practice where appropriate.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 8.7
6.19	Landlords must confirm the following in writing to the resident at the completion of stage 2 in clear, plain language: a. the complaint stage; b. the complaint definition; c. the decision on the complaint; d. the reasons for any decisions made; e. the details of any remedy offered to put things right; f. details of any outstanding actions; and g. details of how to escalate the matter to the Ombudsman Service if the individual remains dissatisfied.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 8.7

6.20	Stage 2 is the landlord's final response and must involve all suitable staff members needed to issue such a response.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 8.4

Section 7: Putting things right

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
7.1	Where something has gone wrong a landlord must acknowledge this and set out the actions it has already taken, or intends to take, to put things right. These can include: • Apologising; • Acknowledging where things have gone wrong; • Providing an explanation, assistance or reasons; • Taking action if there has been delay; • Reconsidering or changing a decision; • Amending a record or adding a correction or addendum; • Providing a financial remedy; • Changing policies, procedures or practices.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 9.1	The Charity will contact the resident by letter and, if appropriate, by phone call or in person to communicate these details.
7.2	Any remedy offered must reflect the impact on the resident as a result of any fault identified.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 9.2
7.3	The remedy offer must clearly set out what will happen and by when, in agreement with the resident where appropriate. Any remedy proposed must be followed through to completion.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 9.3	The remedy offer will be made in writing by letter setting out these details.

7.4	Landlords must take account of the guidance issued by the Ombudsman when deciding on appropriate remedies.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 9.4
-----	--	-----	-------------------------------	--

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
8.1	Landlords must produce an annual complaints performance and service improvement report for scrutiny and challenge, which must include: a. the annual self-assessment against this Code to ensure their complaint handling policy remains in line with its requirements. b. a qualitative and quantitative analysis of the landlord's complaint handling performance. This must also include a summary of the types of complaints the landlord has refused to accept; c. any findings of non-compliance with this Code by the Ombudsman; d. the service improvements made as a result of the learning from complaints; e. any annual report about the landlord's performance from the Ombudsman; and f. any other relevant reports or publications produced by the Ombudsman in relation to the work of the landlord.	Yes	The Charity is herewith carrying out the self-assessment against the Code. We are publishing the complaints policy, the self assessment, the annual complaints performance and service improvement report and the trustees' response to it on our website: marjoriehurstcharity.org.uk
8.2	The annual complaints performance and service improvement report must	Yes	As above

	be reported to the landlord's governing body (or equivalent) and published on the on the section of its website relating to complaints. The governing body's response to the report must be published alongside this.
8.3	Landlords must also carry out a self-assessment following a significant restructure, merger and/or change in procedures.	N/A	There has been no such instance but this provision is understood.
8.4	Landlords may be asked to review and update the self-assessment following an Ombudsman investigation.	N/A	This provision is understood.
8.5	If a landlord is unable to comply with the Code due to exceptional circumstances, such as a cyber incident, they must inform the Ombudsman, provide information to residents who may be affected, and publish this on their website Landlords must provide a timescale for returning to compliance with the Code.	N/A	This provision is understood.

Section 9: Scrutiny & oversight: continuous learning and improvement

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
9.1	Landlords must look beyond the circumstances of the individual complaint and consider whether service improvements can be made as a result of any learning from the complaint.	Yes	Complaints Policy sections 9.1, 10.1 and the Complaints Performance & Service Improvement Report	The MRC will identify any service improvements or changes to policies or practices.
9.2	A positive complaint handling culture is integral to the effectiveness with which landlords resolve disputes. Landlords must use complaints as a source of intelligence to identify issues and introduce positive changes in service delivery.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 10.2 and the Complaints Performance & Service Improvement Report	The MRC will identify any service improvements or changes to policies or practices and make recommendations to the board of trustees.
9.3	Accountability and transparency are also integral to a positive complaint handling culture. Landlords must report back on wider learning and improvements from complaints to stakeholders, such as residents' panels, staff and relevant committees.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 12.3 and the Complaints Performance & Service Improvement Report	Wider learning will be communicated back to the board of trustees and directly to the residents eg by letter and/or in the Residents' Handbook as appropriate.
9.4	Landlords must appoint a suitably senior lead person as accountable for their complaint handling. This person must assess any themes or trends to identify potential systemic issues, serious risks, or policies and procedures that require revision.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 10.1	Sarah Baron, who is the Clerk to the Trustees and the Complaints Officer, manages the Charity on a day-to-day basis and is suitable to be the accountable person.

9.5	In addition to this a member of the governing body (or equivalent) must be appointed to have lead responsibility for complaints to support a positive complaint handling culture. This person is referred to as the Member Responsible for Complaints ('the MRC').	Yes	Complaints Policy section 10.2	Andrew Lloyd-Green is a Trustee of the Charity and is the Member Responsible for Complaints
9.6	The MRC will be responsible for ensuring the governing body receives regular information on complaints that provides insight on the landlord's complaint handling performance. This person must have access to suitable information and staff to perform this role and report on their findings.	Yes	Complaints Policy section 10.2 and the annual Complaints Performance & Service Improvement Report	Andrew Lloyd-Green will report to the other trustees if there is information to disseminate on complaints. This will be at the quarterly trustees' meeting and by email depending on whether there is information to report.
9.7	As a minimum, the MRC and the governing body (or equivalent) must receive: a. regular updates on the volume, categories and outcomes of complaints, alongside complaint handling performance; b. regular reviews of issues and trends arising from complaint handling; c. regular updates on the outcomes of the Ombudsman's investigations and progress made in complying with orders related to severe maladministration findings; and	Yes	Complaints Policy section 10.2 and the annual Complaints Performance & Service Improvement Report	Andrew Lloyd-Green will report to the other trustees if there is information to disseminate on complaints. This will be at the quarterly trustees' meeting and by email depending on whether there is information to report.

	d. annual complaints performance and service improvement report.
9.8	Landlords must have a standard objective in relation to complaint handling for all relevant employees or third parties that reflects the need to: a. have a collaborative and co-operative approach towards resolving complaints, working with colleagues across teams and departments; b. take collective responsibility for any shortfalls identified through complaints, rather than blaming others; and c. act within the professional standards for engaging with complaints as set by any relevant professional body.	Yes	The Almshouse Association's Standards of Almshouse Management section 10.	As a small almshouse charity and member of the Almshouse Association, the Charity of Marjorie Hurst takes pride in being responsive to the needs of its residents. The Charity has five trustees, one clerk and eleven residents. There are quarterly trustees' meetings and regular contact with our residents. The trustees and Clerk work closely together and strive to do their best for the residents so that any complaints are avoided. If a complaint arises, the process set out in the complaints policy will be followed.
